Assessment Number

This form should be completed where a property is owned by more than one owner (i.e. a group owner) or occupied by more than one occupier/tenant (i.e. a group occupier).

1. Group Owner

When a rateable property is owned by more than one owner the right to vote belongs to the group of owners (group owner) not to each member of the group.

The individual members who make up the group owner can be:

- businesses or organisations (bodies corporate); or
- individual people (natural persons); or
- a combination of businesses, organisations and people (bodies corporate and natural persons).

or

2. Group Occupier

When a rateable property is occupied by more than one occupier/tenant the right to vote belongs to the group of occupiers/tenants (group occupier) and not to each member of the group.

The individual members who make up the group occupier can be:

- businesses or organisations (bodies corporate); or
- individual people (natural persons); or
- a combination of businesses, organisations and people (bodies corporate and natural persons).

Designated Person

This application must include a designated person to be enrolled on the voters roll for an area or ward.

- A natural person who is 18 years or above and who is a member of the group authorised to act on behalf of the group for the purposes of voting.
 - An officer of a body corporate is a director, manager, secretary, public officer or other person involved in the management of the body corporate.

Enrolment can only be granted in respect to the rateable property address nominated on the front of this form. Where applicants are seeking enrolment for additional properties (located in different wards in the Council area) a separate application form must be completed in respect to each property.

An elector can only vote once for an Area election (i.e. for a Mayor or Area Councillors) and once in any Ward election (i.e. for Ward Councillors). A designated person may only vote in one capacity at an election.
